Guardian Management Company Announced as WorldSweeper.com's Contractor of the Month for May 2011

The Editorial Board of WorldSweeper.com is pleased to announce the selection of Idaho-based, Guardian Management Company as its Contractor of the Month for May 2011. Ranger Kidwell-Ross, editor of the world's largest resource for power sweeping, says of Ross Barton, president of Guardian Management Company, and his company:

“Guardian Management Company exemplifies the standards required by WorldSweeper for our monthly spotlight featuring a professional power sweeping contractor. They are an ethical, top-flight firm that puts our industry into the best possible light by providing the highest quality of professionalism. With over 5,000 sweeping contractors in America, Guardian Management Company is to be congratulated on being recognized as a firm deserving of one of only twelve such awards we present per year.”

Guardian Management Company is part of an organization founded in 2003 by Ross and Tina Barton. In addition to power sweeping, the service for which the company is being nationally recognized, the firm also provides a comprehensive slate of related maintenance services, including landscaping, asphalt maintenance, snow removal, line striping and more. The firm services more than 200 customers, has 6 sweepers and support vehicles and 8 full time employees.
